

The Swan, Wedmore, Voted One of the UK's Top 50 Gastropubs

The Swan in Wedmore has been named one of the Top 50 Gastropubs in the country. The Budweiser Budvar Top 50 Gastropub Awards is one of the industry's most prestigious accolades. Voted for purely by industry insiders, you cannot apply to enter.

Hundreds of gastropub operators, top chefs, food writers, pub guide editors, catering development managers and pub and restaurant bosses are polled to nominate their favourite pub.

The Swan now goes through to the final awards ceremony on 26th January 2015 when Michelin-starred Chef, Tom Kerridge, will reveal where the The Swan is ranked in the Top 50.

Rob Greacen, Managing Director The Draco Pub Company Ltd said: "We're delighted to have made the Top 50. This is such a prestigious list and we're thrilled that Exec Chef Tom Blake and all his team have been recognised for their outstanding work and the quality of the food that they produce. Fingers crossed that we'll be named number one Gastropub at the awards in January."
